

BURGLARS CAUGHT HIDING IN CHURCH AFTER LONG CHASE

Wurzburg and Meyer, With Long Records, Halted in Act of Robbing.

Two young crooks who stand a good chance of spending the rest of their lives in Sing Sing were arraigned in Morrisania police court to-day charged with burglary. They are William Wurzburg, twenty-four years old, and Frederick Meyer, twenty-three years old. Wurzburg has spent eleven of his twenty-four years in reformatories or jails and Meyer's record is almost as bad.

The two entered Lewis Smith's saloon at No. 290 Willis avenue, Bronx Borough, early to-day and were preparing to leave with the contents of the cash register and a large supply of liquor, cigarettes and cigars when Mrs. Smith, who had been aroused by a noise, slipped down into the barroom from the living apartments upstairs. She ran right into the thieves as they were making for the door.

One of the pair knocked down Mrs. Smith. She screamed and awakened her husband, who blew his police whistle, summoning Policemen Lyons and Dunn of the Alexander avenue station. The thieves escaped temporarily into a rear yard, through a window and climbed several fences, making for an alley leading into One Hundred and Forty-third street. Dunn pursued them through yards and over fences while Lyons ran around the alley to head them off.

The thieves, out from escape through the alley, raised a window in the basement of the Congregational Church, at No. 407 East One Hundred and Forty-third street, and entered. They were found hiding behind a pile of chairs by the policeman and placed under arrest.

It was not until Dunn and Lyons brought their captives to Police Headquarters that the importance of the arrests were recognized. The records of Wurzburg and Meyer were found to be as long as a policeman's arm. Both have served terms in the Catholic Reformatory, the House of Detention, Elmira Reformatory and the penitentiary. In addition Wurzburg has four years in Sing Sing to his credit. He was released from prison only a short time ago. Under the habitual criminal act Wurzburg and Meyer may be sent up for life.

BANDIT HELD FOR TRIAL FOR ATTEMPTED LURID.

Cashier Grabbed Money When He Saw Gun and Jumped Out of Window.

Fred Delmer, a yellow-faced, sharp-eyed thief, sat in Gates Avenue Court before Magistrate Nash to-day and heard witnesses tell how he had attempted to hold up the cashier of a life insurance company at the point of a gun last Thursday. Delmer was held without bail on the two charges of assault and attempted robbery.

John G. Janson, the cashier who looked down the muzzle of Delmer's revolver, was behind the case of the Colonial Life Insurance Company's agency, on the second floor of the building at No. 128 Broadway, Brooklyn, with a pile of money in front of him when the thief showed a gun through the window and demanded the money. Janson grabbed the bills, dropped the counter level and hurried along the side of the room until he came to a window. Out he jumped to a roof five feet below.

Janson was shouting an alarm, and his father, Louis Janson, who was in another office, joined him in the outcry. Policemen Dunlap of the Ralph avenue station had to chase the thief seven blocks before he was collared.
